SECOND SUNDAY after EPIPHANY

“Our thoughts and prayers are with...” That seems to be our society’s “liturgical response” to tragedy: a person’s accident, disease, death; or a large group affected by a hurricane or mass shooting. Yet how do we understand prayer? How do we practice prayer? Is it Listen Lord, for I have something to say! We do see this in the Psalms, such as 80:1-2 or 109. Or, is our prayer life, first of all, as Samuel learns in today’s first reading: Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening. How will our attitude about prayer affect our personal behavior? ... our corporate policies and actions?

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

P Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, who stretches out the heavens, who sends light to the nations, who gives breath to us all.

C Amen.

P Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence is kept for reflection and self-examination.

P Loving God,

C we confess that we have turned from your way to follow our own ways.

Forgive us for the times

we have spoken or acted too quickly;

we have not spoken or acted at all;

we have hurt those closest to us;

we have hurt those we have yet to know;

we have thought more about ourselves than others;

we have thought less of ourselves than we ought.

Turn us around, and give us a fresh start,

so that we can live again as your children. Amen.

P Even when we have done wrong, God makes us right. Even when we have messed up, God puts us together. God's love never runs out. God never tires of calling us beloved children. Hear God say to you now: Your sins are forgiven, for the sake of † Jesus Christ our Savior.

C Amen.

FIRST READING

1 Samuel 3:1-10

In the sweep of the Bible's story of God's action to make the world right again, we are at a pivotal point, marked by a miraculous birth. (Compare 1 Samuel 1,2 and Luke 1:26-38, 46-55.) The people chosen for God's saving purpose (Genesis 12:1-3) have experienced God's liberating power and have experienced God's generosity in the Promised Land. (See Exodus 14, 15 and Deuteronomy 6:7-9.) But our constant preference to go our own ways has, once again, created chaos and suffering. That is described in the book of Judges. The God who is ever faithful now will provide a prophet/leader. How will he respond to God's call?

Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the Lord under Eli. The word of the Lord was rare in those days; visions were not widespread.

²At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim so that he could not see, was lying down in his room; ³the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the Lord, where the ark of God was. ⁴Then the Lord called, "Samuel! Samuel!" and he said, "Here I am!" ⁵and ran to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call; lie down again." So he went and lay down. ⁶The Lord called again, "Samuel!" Samuel got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call, my son; lie down again." ⁷Now Samuel did not yet know the Lord, and the word of the Lord had not yet been revealed to him. ⁸The Lord called Samuel again, a third time. And he got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." Then Eli perceived that the Lord was calling the boy. ⁹Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down; and if he calls you, you shall say, 'Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

¹⁰Now the Lord came and stood there, calling as before, "Samuel! Samuel!" And Samuel said, "Speak, for your servant is listening."

A The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

PSALM 139:1-6, 13-18

Psalm 139:1

Psalm refrain reproduced from Psalter for Worship Year B © 2008 Augsburg Fortress

¹Lord, you have searched me out;

O Lord, you have known me.

²You know my sitting down and my rising up;
you discern my thoughts from afar.

³You trace my journeys and my resting-places
and are acquainted with all my ways.

⁴Indeed, there is not a word on my lips,
but you, O Lord, know it altogether.

⁵You encompass me, behind and before,
and lay your hand upon me.

⁶Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
it is so high that I cannot attain to it.

¹³For you yourself created my inmost parts;
you knit me together in my mother's womb.

¹⁴I will thank you because I am marvelously made;
your works are wonderful, and I know it well.

¹⁵My body was not hidden from you,
while I was being made in secret and woven in the depths of the earth.

¹⁶Your eyes beheld my limbs, yet unfinished in the womb; all of them were written in your book;
my days were fashioned before they came to be.

¹⁷How deep I find your thoughts, O God!
How great is the sum of them!

¹⁸If I were to count them, they would be more in number than the sand;
to count them all, my life span would need to be like yours.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 6:12-20

What matters to the God who created matter? First Church Corinth included an eclectic bunch of folks in a cosmopolitan city, coming from many diverse philosophies, religions, and moralities. How is the Body of Christ to be formed, to act? As these early Christ-followers had very limited control over their lives, the Apostle addresses their personal morality. If we have more power, as in a democracy, how do St. Paul's words apply to us?

“All things are lawful for me,” but not all things are beneficial. “All things are lawful for me,” but I will not be dominated by anything. ¹³“Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food,” and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is meant not for fornication but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. ¹⁴And God raised the Lord and will also raise us by his power. ¹⁵Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Should I therefore take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never! ¹⁶Do you not know that whoever is united to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For it is said, “The two shall be one flesh.” ¹⁷But anyone united to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. ¹⁸Shun fornication! Every sin that a person commits is outside the body; but the fornicator sins against the body itself. ¹⁹Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God, and that you are not your own? ²⁰For you were bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body.

A The word of the Lord.

G Thanks be to God.

G Glory to you, O Lord.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

John 1:43-51

Epiphany is the missionary season of the Church year. We read how Jesus moves out to build the kingdom of God, calling followers to share in the work. Here we see Jesus working through relationships and through questions. What questions would I ask of Jesus? When do questions about the faith come from skepticism? ...from honest inquiry? Can both nourish faith?

The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, “Follow me.”⁴⁴ Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.⁴⁵ Philip found Nathanael and said to him, “We have found him about whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth.”⁴⁶ Nathanael said to him, “Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” Philip said to him, “Come and see.”⁴⁷ When Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him, he said of him, “Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!”⁴⁸ Nathanael asked him, “Where did you get to know me?” Jesus answered, “I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you.”⁴⁹ Nathanael replied, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!”⁵⁰ Jesus answered, “Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these.”⁵¹ And he said to him, “Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man.”

P The Gospel of our Lord

G Praise to you, O Christ.

Then, they may either follow the teacher upstairs for an extended children’s sermon (joining us again later in time for Communion) or they may return to their seat and use the Spark Bible and/or activity bags during the regular sermon.

You may also obtain a paper copy by contacting the Office.

Jesus, Son of God, you have searched me and known me. Thank you for calling me to follow you as a beloved child of God. Amen.

Mealtime Prayer:

God bless this food. God bless this day. God keep us safe in every way. Amen.

A Blessing to Give:

May the God who knows when you sit down and when you rise

Discuss in your home or small group:

- What does it mean to you to be called by God?
- When have you sensed God calling you to be a servant of God's love?
- Psalm 139 speaks of a God who knows us and cares for us very intimately. What does it mean to you to have a God who cares for you and knows you so personally?

Read: 1 Samuel 3:9-10.

It is easy to accept that pastors have a call from God, but we all have a call from God, one that begins in baptism. Eli tells Samuel to listen to God's call to Samuel. Philip tells Nathanael to "come and see" (John 1:46). Psalm 139 gives praise to God who knows and cares for the psalmist quite personally (verses 1-3). When do you sense the call and care of God? Who helps you listen to and recognize God in your life? Pray the following prayer:

Pray: Dear God, you have called me by name and send me out into your world to do your work and will each day. Help me to hear your voice and to do your will for the sake of Christ who has come to bring salvation to all. Amen.

When Jesus called Philip to follow him, Philip wanted to share the good news of Jesus with his friend Nathanael. It is an example of faith that is formed through, personal, trusted relationships. Identify a personal friend or family member to share the love and hope that Jesus brings. It can be someone who is already Christian and who could use the encouragement of your own faith practice. Fellow Christians also need the affirmation of faith that others can bring. Consider using portions of Taking Faith Home with that person to initiate conversation and prayer.

Psalm 139 offers one of the most personal and intimate expressions of God's care and presence for one's life in the Bible. Like the Apostle Paul states in Romans 8:38-39, nothing can separate us from God's love. Read Psalm 139 slowly several times and select a verse to reflect on during the week, one that perhaps has special meaning for your current circumstances. Memorize and pray the verse during the week.
