THE HOLY TRINITY

E Pluribus Unum – “out of many, one”. We find these words on dollar bills. More importantly, these words are part of the Seal of the United States. Our nation’s founders adopted this motto to emphasize the unity necessary if the colonies were to succeed in their quest for independence. We must ask how/if this statement applies today. Which “many” is allowed to become part of the “one”?

Today we observe the only Sunday named after a doctrine – The Holy Trinity. Not just some theory that is disconnected from daily life, the doctrine of the Trinity is teaching. It represents the earliest Christ-followers trying to explain what happened when the human, named Jesus, lived, died, rose from the dead, ascended, yet was still experienced as powerfully present with them. At the same time, they would not abandon their heritage, that God is One. Today we are invited to move beyond the puzzle of individualism – how can  $1 + 1 + 1 = 1$ ? Instead, we are invited to imagine: How does the Infinite God, revealed in grace (of our Lord Jesus Christ) love (of God) and fellowship/communion (of the Holy Spirit) make each of us whole, healing our relationships and guiding our work for peace in the whole world?

Our nation also observes Memorial Day. Current customs go back to the days after the Civil War, remembering the more than 600,000 who died in that conflict. Today we remember with gratitude all who have gone before us, who have contributed to the good we can enjoy. Our concluding hymn invites us to offer God our gratitude for all that is ours. The words also challenge us to use this for God’s picture of a just nation that includes many, seeking the good of all.

WORD

FIRST READING

Isaiah 6:1-8

Worship in the temple was, for the prophet Isaiah, the foundation of his faith, his message and his life-long work. This particular experience is connected to a specific event in the life of his people. We know that worship in the Temple included stimuli to multiple senses: seeing, hearing, smelling, maybe tasting and feeling. We could ask how that affected his whole neurological system. How did that lead Isaiah to deeper awareness of God's grandeur? What in worship affects me in a similar way, leading me to greater knowledge of God that, then, leads me to deeper commitment to serve God's purpose?

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. <sup>2</sup>Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. <sup>3</sup>And one called to another and said: “Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.”

<sup>4</sup>The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke.

<sup>5</sup>And I said: “Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!”

<sup>6</sup>Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. <sup>7</sup>The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: “Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.”<sup>8</sup> Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?” And I said, “Here am I; send me!”

□ The word of the Lord.

☞ Thanks be to God.

PSALM 29

In the news we see nature’s power to destroy. At the same time, when we can witness a storm from a place of shelter and security, we get to see an awesome display of power. Perhaps that is the way we get to trust God – who is present in the wilderness (verse 8, see Numbers 13:26) and who playfully makes mountains (verse 6).

<sup>1</sup>Ascribe to the LORD, you gods, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.

<sup>2</sup>Ascribe to the LORD the glory due God’s name;

worship the LORD in the beau- ty of holiness.

<sup>3</sup>The voice of the LORD is upon the waters; the God of glory thunders;

the LORD is upon the mighty waters.

<sup>4</sup>The voice of the LORD is a powerful voice;

the voice of the LORD is a voice of splendor. ☞

the LORD breaks the cedars of Lebanon;

<sup>6</sup>the LORD makes Lebanon skip like a calf, and Mount Hermon like a young wild ox.

<sup>7</sup>The voice of the LORD

bursts forth in lightning flashes.

<sup>8</sup>The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness;

the LORD shakes the wilder- ness of Kadesh. ☞

<sup>9</sup>The voice of the LORD makes the oak trees writhe and strips the forests bare.

And in the temple of the LORD all are crying, “Glory!”

<sup>10</sup>The LORD sits enthroned above the flood;

the LORD sits enthroned as king for- evermore.

<sup>11</sup>O LORD, give strength to your people;

give them, O LORD, the blessings of peace. ☞

The Apostle has been writing of the Gospel – God’s power to restore us and all creation. Using the image of social structures from his age, he tells us that, rather than being slaves of past habits and patterns, we can live freely as adopted children. Through the Holy Spirit we share full status as children of the God-whom-Jesus-called-Father.

Brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh—<sup>13</sup>for if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. <sup>14</sup>For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. <sup>15</sup>For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, “Abba! Father!” <sup>16</sup>it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, <sup>17</sup>and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

📖 The word of the Lord.

🙏 Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom shall we go?
You have the words of e - ter - nal life. Al - le - lu - ia.

📖 The Holy Gospel according to St. John.

🙏 Glory to you, O Lord.

GOSPEL

John 3:1-17

The most beloved words of scripture are found within this conversation. Nicodemus wanted to know what Jesus was really all about. Yet he could not help but be puzzled. Can old dogs learn new tricks? They can, Jesus said, if they accept true life as a gift from above. His words here may point to a specific experience of dramatic change – being born again. Jesus’ words also remind us of the daily challenge: What is the source of our life? Is it the stuff around us? Or, is the source of our life the Spirit of the Creator God?

Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. <sup>2</sup>He came to Jesus by night and said to him, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God.” <sup>3</sup>Jesus answered him, “Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above.” <sup>4</sup>Nicodemus said to him, “How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother’s womb and be born?” <sup>5</sup>Jesus answered, “Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. <sup>6</sup>What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. <sup>7</sup>Do not be astonished that I said to you, ‘You must be born from above.’ <sup>8</sup>The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.”<sup>9</sup> Nicodemus said to him, “How can these things be?”<sup>10</sup> Jesus answered him, “Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things?”

<sup>11</sup>“Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. <sup>12</sup>If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? <sup>13</sup>No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. <sup>14</sup>And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, <sup>15</sup>that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

<sup>16</sup>“For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

<sup>17</sup>“Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.”

C Praise to you, O Christ.

THE ATHANASIAN CREED

The Church has three ecumenical creeds: the Apostles’ Creed, Nicene Creed and The Athanasian Creed. The Athanasian Creed is a teaching statement focused on the Holy Trinity. It is the first creed in which the equality of the three persons of the Trinity is explicitly stated. Written in the Fifth Century, more than 15 centuries later the church continues to confess this truth, confident that the triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, has given himself for our salvation.

P Whoever wants to be saved should above all cling to the catholic faith. Whoever does not guard it whole and inviolable will doubtless perish eternally. Now this is the catholic faith:

C We worship one God in trinity and the Trinity in unity, neither confusing the persons nor dividing the divine being.

For the Father is one person, the Son is another, and the Spirit is still another.

But the deity of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit is one, equal in glory, coeternal in majesty.

What the Father is, the Son is, and so is the Holy Spirit.

P Uncreated is the Father; uncreated is the Son; uncreated is the Spirit.

C Eternal is the Father; eternal is the Son; eternal is the Spirit:
And yet there are not three eternal beings, but one who is eternal;
as there are not three uncreated and unlimited beings,
but one who is uncreated and unlimited.

P Almighty is the Father; almighty is the Son; almighty is the Spirit:
And yet there are not three almighty beings, but one who is almighty.

C Thus the Father is God; the Son is God; the Holy Spirit is God:
And yet there are not three gods, but one God.
Thus the Father is Lord; the Son is Lord; the Holy Spirit is Lord:
And yet there are not three lords, but one Lord.

P As Christian truth compels us to acknowledge each distinct person as God and Lord, so catholic religion forbids us to say that there are three gods or lords.

C The Father was neither made nor created nor begotten;
the Son was neither made nor created,
but was alone begotten of the Father;
the Spirit was neither made nor created,
but is proceeding from the Father and the Son.
Thus there is one Father, not three fathers;
one Son, not three sons; one Holy Spirit, not three spirits.

P And in this Trinity, no one is before or after, greater or less than the other; but all three persons are in themselves, coeternal and coequal; and so we must worship the Trinity in unity and the one God in three persons.

Whoever wants to be saved should think thus about the Trinity.

It is necessary for eternal salvation that one also faithfully believe that our Lord Jesus became flesh.

C For this is the true faith that we believe and confess:
That our Lord Jesus Christ, God's Son, is both God and man.
He is God, begotten before all worlds from the being of the Father, and he is man, born in the world from the being of his mother-- existing fully as God, and fully as man with a rational soul and a human body;
equal to the Father in divinity,
subordinate to the Father in humanity.

P Although he is God and man, he is not divided, but is one Christ.

He is united because God has taken humanity into himself;

he does not transform deity into humanity.

He is completely one in the unity of his person, without confusing his natures.

For as the rational soul and body are one person,
so the one Christ is God and man.

C He suffered death for our salvation.
He descended into hell and rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
At his coming all people shall rise bodily to give an account of their own deeds.

Those who have done good will enter eternal life,

those who have done evil will enter eternal fire.

This is the catholic faith.

One cannot be saved without believing this firmly and faithfully.

CELEBRATION OF 2018 HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

- P Today we celebrate those who are taking another step in their vocation. We ask those graduates who are present, along with their parents and immediate family, to please come forward.
- P Parents, in Christian love you presented your children for Holy Baptism. As these young men and women journey further in their God-given calling, we now ask you reaffirm the promises you made at baptism. Will you continue to pray for your children and to nurture their faith? If so answer, “I do and I ask God to help and guide me.”
- P Graduates, do you intend to continue in the covenant God made with you in Holy Baptism:
To live among God’s faithful people,
To come to the word of God and the Holy Supper,
To strive to grow in faith and prayer so that you might Trust God, Proclaim Christ through word and deed, Care for others and the world God made, and Work for justice and peace in all the world;
If so, answer, “I do and I ask God to help and guide me.”

- C Amen.

PRAYER

- P O God, we bless you and thank you for giving our lives meaning and a vocation. Through you, we receive the gifts of love, joy, and forgiveness. ### POSTLUDE

In a Word, Believe

At the airport the young man's father and mother hugged him, stamped unremovable kisses on his unshaven cheek, draped "I love you" eyes upon him, mouthed "be safe" and sent him off to volunteer in Argentina, where he later disappeared. Did he perish?

Earth trembles, wind howls, fire refines. Do we perish? Famines devour by day, plagues creep by night, wars shriek. Do we perish?

"For God so loved the world . . .

Shamefaced in prisons, shivering on street corners, lonely in crowds, invaded all alone. Do we perish? At the top, exhausted; at the bottom, despairing; at the edges, ignored; at the center, shrinking. Do we perish?

. . . that he gave his only Son, . . .

Washed out memories, built up distances. Do we perish? Love discarded, hatred hoarded. Do we perish?

. . . so that everyone who believes in him may not perish."

Nicodemus came to Jesus in the dark. This is what he said: "no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God" (John 3:2). An unsteady, fitful confidence flickered like a sputtering wick in the dark. "How can these things be?" Riddled about the kingdom of God, flesh and Spirit, heaven and earth, he didn't hide inside of cautious silence or avoid heavy darkness.

Nicodemus came to Jesus in the dark. There he found God's answer in a word. Believe. Believe not in a world without death or disaster, not in a world without suffering or loss, not in a world without devastation or humiliation, not in a world without defeat or shame. Believe in God who refuses to abandon such a world. Believe in the sign of God, Jesus himself, God's love for this world where joys do agonize, flowers do fade, springs do thirst. Believe in God in the dark night hour.

Quiet activity bags, children's bibles, and bulletins are available, as well as a Quiet Room, just off the west side of the main sanctuary, that includes a TV and a variety of toys, games, and books for young children.

It is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ. Romans 8:16-17a (NRSV)

A Prayer for the Week:

Holy Trinity, we thank you for giving us new birth and making us your children and heirs of promise forevermore. Amen.

Mealtime Prayer:

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise God, all creatures here below; praise God above, you heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

A Blessing to Give:

May the Lord strengthen you and bless you with peace. (Psalm 29:11)

Discuss in your home or small group:

- Talk about a time you felt powerless in a situation.
- Slaves in the time of Christ had no legal power, no legal identity as a parent, and no hope of inheritance. What would it be like to be a slave?
- We did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear but a spirit of adoption (Romans 8:15). What does it mean to you to be adopted by God?

Read: Romans 8:12-17 and John 3:1-17.

The Holy Trinity of God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God in three persons, is a difficult idea to understand. However, it is best described through relationship and story, our story as people who have been “born from above” (John 3:3). John 3 and Romans 8 both focus on the love of God that adopts us, gives us a new birth and makes us children of promise, children with an inheritance with Christ. Instead of being slaves to sin and death, we are freed for a new life in Christ. However, the glory of this new life still experiences suffering with Christ (Romans 8:17). Reflect on how suffering connects us to God’s love for this present world.

Pray: Holy Trinity, we thank you for giving us new birth and making us your children and heirs of promise forevermore. Amen.

In Isaiah 6:1-8 the prophet Isaiah is terrified by being in God’s holy presence because Isaiah is unclean. That changes when an angel brings a flaming coal from the altar and cleanses Isaiah from his sin. Then, in response to God’s question, “Whom shall I send?”, Isaiah is ready to say, “Here I am, send me”. God continues today to call and send us out into the world with the good news of Christ and his forgiveness. The one qualification Isaiah needed to be sent was to be forgiven. We are all qualified to be sent through that same power of forgiveness. Consider ways to be a servant of God’s love this week by offering an act of love, a caring conversation, and/or a word of prayer that expresses trust and hope in the Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

A longstanding Christian tradition is to recall one’s baptism and being born from above by reciting the words for the Trinity: “In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.” This week begin and end your days by making the sign of the cross on your forehead or over your heart and say: “In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.” Consider making this a daily practice.

NEXT WEEK’S READINGS: Deuteronomy 5:12-15; Psalm 81:1-10
2 Corinthians 4:5-12; Mark 2:23--3:6
