TWENTIETH SUNDAY after PENTECOST

A little faith goes a long way is our Lord's point in the gospel. A mustard seed's-worth has miraculous potential. The patience, tenacity, and endurance required for the life of faith are the blessings received in water and the word (holy baptism), bread and wine (holy communion), the word read and proclaimed in this assembly. Anticipate them. Receive them with thanksgiving.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

- ☐ Blessed be the holy Trinity, ☩ one God, the only Sovereign, who dwells in light; Christ Jesus, who came to save sinners; the Holy Spirit, who lives within us.
- ☑ Amen.
- ☐ Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence is kept for reflection.

- ☐ God of overflowing grace,

Forgive us our neglect and thoughtlessness. Bring us home from the wilderness of sin, and strengthen us to serve you in all that we do and say; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.
- ☐ There is joy in heaven over every sinner who repents. By the grace of God in ☩ Christ Jesus, who gave himself up for us all, your sins are forgiven and you are made free. Rejoice with the angels and with one another! We are home in God's mercy, now and forever.

FIRST READING

Habakkuk 1:1-4; 2:1-4

Injustice and violence in the time leading up to the Babylonian exile move this prophet to lament: How can a good and all-powerful God see evil in the world and seemingly remain indifferent? God answers by proclaiming that the wicked will perish, but the righteous will live by faith.

The oracle that the prophet Habakkuk saw.

²O Lord, how long shall I cry for help, and you will not listen? Or cry to you “Violence!” and you will not save? ³Why do you make me see wrongdoing and look at trouble? Destruction and violence are before me; strife and contention arise. ⁴So the law becomes slack and justice never prevails. The wicked surround the righteous—therefore judgment comes forth perverted.

^{2:1}I will stand at my watchpost, and station myself on the rampart; I will keep watch to see what he will say to me, and what he will answer concerning my complaint. ²Then the Lord answered me and said: Write the vision; make it plain on tablets, so that a runner may read it. ³For there is still a vision for the appointed time; it speaks of the end, and does not lie. If it seems to tarry, wait for it; it will surely come, it will not delay. ⁴Look at the proud! Their spirit is not right in them, but the righteous live by their faith.

A The word of the Lord.

G Thanks be to God.

PSALM 37

Com - mit your way to the LORD; put your trust in the LORD, and see what God will do.

Do not be provoked by evildoers;

Do not be jealous of those who do wrong.

For they shall soon wither like the grass,

And like the green grass fade away. R

Put your trust in the Lord and do good;

Dwell in the land and find safe pasture.

Take delight in the Lord,

Who shall give you your heart's desire. R

Commit your way to the Lord;

Put your trust in the Lord, and see what God will do.

The Lord will make your vindication as clear as the light

And the justice of your case like the noonday sun. R

Be still before the Lord and wait patiently;

Do not be provoked by the one who prospers, the one who succeeds in evil schemes.

Refrain from anger, leave rage alone;

Do not be provoked; it leads only to evil.

For evildoers shall be cut off,

But those who hope in the Lord shall possess the land.

SECOND READING

2 Timothy 1:1-14

This message written from Paul to Timothy is a personal message of encouragement. In the face of hardship and persecution, Timothy is reminded that his faith is a gift of God. He is encouraged to exercise that faith with the help of the Holy Spirit.

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, for the sake of the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus, ²To Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

³I am grateful to God—whom I worship with a clear conscience, as my ancestors did—when I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. ⁴Recalling your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. ⁵I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you. ⁶For this reason I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands; ⁷for God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline.

⁸Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God, ⁹who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace. This grace was given to us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, ¹⁰but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. ¹¹For this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher, ¹²and for this reason I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know the one in whom I have put my trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard until that day what I have entrusted to him. ¹³Hold to the standard of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. ¹⁴Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

A The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL

Luke 17:5-10

On the way to Jerusalem, Jesus instructs his followers about the power of faith and the duties of discipleship. He calls his disciples to adopt the attitude of servants whose actions are responses to their identity rather than works seeking reward.

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!" ⁶The Lord replied, "If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

⁷"Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, 'Come here at once and take your place at the table'? ⁸Would you not rather say to him, 'Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink'? ⁹Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? ¹⁰So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, 'We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!'"

SCRIPTURE VERSE FOR THIS WEEK

God’s Spirit doesn’t make cowards out of us. The Spirit gives us power, love, and self-control. 2 Timothy 1:7 (CEV)

SAY, PRAY, AND BLESS:

A Prayer for the Week:

Dear God, give us the faith that trusts you and grants us the power to love and serve with selfcontrol. Amen.

Mealtime Prayer:

Thanks we give to God above, for strength and health and those we love. Amen. A

Blessing to Give:

May God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ be kind and merciful to you and bless you with peace! Amen. (2 Timothy 1:2)

CARING CONVERSATIONS

Discuss in your household or small group:

- What people have influenced your life of faith? How did these people influence your faith?
- In 2 Timothy 1:5, St. Paul notes that the faith of Timothy came from his grandmother and mother. What does this say about how faith is formed?
- Who nurtures your faith today? Who might be nurtured by your faith?

DEVOTIONS

Faith in God can be challenged when things are difficult, when those who act wrongly seem to succeed, and those who trust God experience difficulties. Psalm 37 affirms that the gains of the wicked will not last. Verse 4a states, “Trust in the Lord, and do good.” 2 Timothy 1:7 says, “God’s spirit doesn’t make cowards out of us. The Spirit gives us power, love, and self-control.” Make a list of the things in your life that make trust in Jesus difficult. Pray for strength and courage so that your life can be freed to serve others in faith and love.

SERVICE

There are many people around us who serve as mustard seeds—they do many “little things” that others may not notice, but add up to a big difference. Think of someone who fits this description. Find some way to thank them for their example of faith.

RITUALS AND TRADITIONS

In 2 Timothy 1:6, Paul mentions that he laid his hands on Timothy. This Christian ritual conveys the passing on of faith and the Spirit from person to person, just as Paul had received faith from “ancestors” (verse 3) and Timothy had received faith through his “family” (verse 5). Place your hands on another person’s shoulders or head and use the words from “A Blessing to Give” as a way to support that person’s faith with “power, love, and self-control.”

FIRST COMMUNION CLASS Pastor Hall will lead a short preparation class on Sunday, 10/16 at Noon for children ready to make their First Communion. The seminar begins in the conference room of the office. A good rule of thumb to determine if the “time is right” is to consider whether your child is curious about participating in the Sacrament. Pr. Hall will introduce the children and parents to the meaning and process of our weekly celebration of Christ’s gift. Please register by calling the church office at 402-341-7761.
