9:00 & 11:00 AM

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY after PENTECOST

Invited and inviting—that is the nature of the church. By God's grace in holy baptism we have a place at the banquet table of the Lord. When, by the power of that same Spirit, humility and mutual love continue among us, the church can be more inviting still.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

P Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, abounding in steadfast love toward us, healing the sick and raising the dead, showering us with every good gift.

G Amen.

P Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence is kept for reflection.

P Just and gracious God,

G we come to you for healing and life. Our sins hurt others and diminish us; we confess them to you. Our lives bear the scars of sin; we bring these also to you. Show us your mercy, O God. Bind up our wounds, forgive us our sins, and free us to love, for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

P The apostle Paul assures us: “When we were dead in our trespasses, God made us alive together with Christ, nailing the record of our sins to the cross.” Jesus says to you, † “Your sins are forgiven.” Be at peace, and tell everyone how much God has done for you.

G Amen.

WORD

(sit)

FIRST READING

Proverbs 25:6-7

The book of Proverbs is part of a collection of writings known as wisdom literature. Wisdom literature gave directions to Israel's leaders and people for the conduct of daily life. Today's reading is about humility.

⁶Do not put yourself forward in the king's presence or stand in the place of the great;
⁷for it is better to be told, "Come up here,"
than to be put lower in the presence of a noble.

Ⓐ The word of the Lord.

Ⓞ Thanks be to God.

PSALM 112 (read responsively)

¹Hallelujah! Happy are they who fear the Lord and have great delight in God's commandments!

²*Their descendants will be mighty in the land;
the generation of the upright will be blessed.*

³Wealth and riches will be in their house,
and their righteousness will last forever.

⁴*Light shines in the darkness for the upright;
the righteous are merciful and full of compassion.*

⁵It is good for them to be generous in lending and to manage their affairs with justice.

⁶*For they will never be shaken;
the righteous will be kept in everlasting remembrance.*

⁷They will not be afraid of any evil rumors;
their heart is steadfast, trusting in the Lord.

⁸*Their heart is established and will not shrink,
until they see their desire upon their enemies.*

⁹They have given freely to the poor, and their righteousness stands fast forever;
they will hold up their head with honor.

¹⁰*The wicked will see it and be angry; they will gnash their teeth and pine away;
the desires of the wicked will perish.*

SECOND READING

Hebrews 13:1-8, 15-16

The conclusion of the letter to the Hebrews contains suggestions for the conduct of a holy life, all of which are shaped by God's love toward us in Jesus Christ.

Let mutual love continue. ²Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. ³Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; those who are being tortured, as though you yourselves were being tortured. ⁴Let marriage be held in honor by all, and let the marriage bed be kept undefiled; for God will judge fornicators and adulterers. ⁵Keep your lives free from the love of money, and be content with what you have; for he has said, "I will never leave you or forsake you." ⁶So we can say with confidence,

"The Lord is my helper;
I will not be afraid.

What can anyone do to me?"

⁷Remember your leaders, those who spoke the word of God to you; consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. ⁸Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

¹⁵Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name. ¹⁶Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

A The word of the Lord.

B Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Repeat alleluia

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke.

C Glory to you, O Lord.

GOSPEL

Luke 14:1, 7-14

Jesus observes guests jockeying for position at the table. He uses the opportunity to teach his hearers to choose humility rather than self-exaltation. Jesus also makes an appeal for hosts to mimic God's gracious hospitality to the poor and the broken.

On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely.

⁷When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honor, he told them a parable. ⁸“When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honor, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; ⁹and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, ‘Give this person your place,’ and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place. ¹⁰But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, ‘Friend, move up higher’; then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. ¹¹For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.”

¹²He said also to the one who had invited him, “When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. ¹³But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. ¹⁴And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.”

☐ The Gospel of our Lord

☑ Praise to you, O Christ.

CHILDREN'S BLESSING (9:00 AM)

Children (aged 3 years through 5th grade) are invited to come forward for a blessing. Then, they may either follow the teacher upstairs for an extended children's sermon (joining us again later in time for Communion) or they may return to their seat and use the Spark Bible and/or activity bags during the regular sermon.

SCRIPTURE VERSE FOR THIS WEEK

Keep being concerned about each other as the Lord's followers should. Be sure to welcome strangers into your home. By doing this, some people have welcomed angels as guests, without even knowing it. Hebrews 13:1-2 (CEV) SAY, PRAY, AND BLESS:

A Prayer for the Week:

Lord Jesus, teach us to be humble like you. Help us to welcome all people in your name. Amen. (Luke 14:7-14)

Mealtime Prayer:

Lord, you care for the poor and lift up the humble. May we be thankful and never grumble. Amen.

A Blessing to Give:

May the God who welcomes you with grace and mercy be with you and guide you today in all that you do and all that you say. Amen.

CARING CONVERSATIONS

Discuss in your household or small group:

- What does it mean to be proud? What does it mean to be humble?
- How has Jesus been a humble servant to us? In response, what are some ways we can show humble service to others?
- In our society, we are taught to fear strangers. What does the command to welcome strangers (Hebrews 13:2) teach us about the benefit of honoring people we don't know?

DEVOTIONS

Hebrews 13:7 says, "Don't forget about your leaders who taught you God's message. Remember what kind of lives they lived and try to have faith like theirs." Pray for Christian leaders who teach you about God: pastors, teachers, Sunday school teachers, youth leaders, parents, grandparents, etc. How has their faith helped you with your faith? Plan a way to express your thanks and appreciation to them

SERVICE

When eating at the house of an important Pharisee, Jesus said: "When you put on a luncheon or a banquet don't invite your friends, brothers, relatives, and rich neighbors. For they will invite you back, and that will be your only reward." Make plans to invite someone you don't know very well to share a meal at your home. Think about how you can work as a household to make them feel as welcome as possible.

RITUALS AND TRADITIONS

Inviting others to be guests in our homes is an excellent way to teach our children about offering hospitality to others. But remember that hospitality is not about putting on a special meal or having a spotless home to show off. It's about welcoming people into our lives as we are and accepting them as they are.

During the week, honor household members or friends by making them the center of attention at a dinner. Set a special place at your dinner table for the honored person. Offer a blessing using "A Blessing to Give" and a special prayer for that person.

Cost: $4. Please RSVP to the church office. Call Sheri Tipton (402-415-6033) if you have questions. All ages are welcome. See you there!

ADULT CHOIR Come and join our amazing group of musicians who sing praise to God and have fun together. The Adult Choir will have its first meeting Wednesday, 9/7 from 7 to 8:30 PM. The choir will return to the worship service on Sunday, 9/11. Past singing experience in high school or college is recommended.
