FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

The mustard seed becomes a great shrub that shelters the birds, recalling ancient images of the tree of life. We'd expect a cedar or a sequoia, but Jesus finds the power of God better imaged in a tiny, no-account seed. It's not the way we expect divine activity to look. Yet the tree of life is here, in the cross around which we gather, the tree into which we are grafted through baptism, the true vine that nourishes us with its fruit in the cup we share. It may not appear all that impressive, but while nobody's looking it grows with a power beyond our understanding.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

P Blessed be the holy Trinity, one God, Father, Son \mp , and Holy Spirit, full of compassion and mercy, abounding in steadfast love.

G Amen.

P Trusting God’s promise of forgiveness, let us confess our sin against God and one another.

Silence is kept for reflection and self-examination.

P Eternal God our creator,

G in you we live and move and have our being.

Look upon us, your children, the work of your hands.

Forgive us all our offenses,

and cleanse us from proud thoughts and empty desires.

By your grace draw us near to you, our refuge and our strength;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

P Since we are justified by faith alone,
we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit given to us.

In the mercy of almighty God,

Christ died for us while we still were sinners;

and for his sake, God \mp forgives you all your sins.

G Amen.

FIRST READING

Ezekiel 17:22-24

Tree imagery is used in a messianic prophecy to tell how the Lord will choose someone from Judah's royal family (the cedar tree) to reign over all creation. This tree will be planted on Mount Zion, the location of the holy temple.

Thus says the Lord GOD: I myself will take a sprig from the lofty top of a cedar; I will set it out. I will break off a tender one from the topmost of its young twigs; I myself will plant it on a high and lofty mountain. ²³On the mountain height of Israel I will plant it, in order that it may produce boughs and bear fruit, and become a noble cedar. Under it every kind of bird will live; in the shade of its branches will nest winged creatures of every kind. ²⁴All the trees of the field shall know that I am the LORD. I bring low the high tree, I make high the low tree; I dry up the green tree and make the dry tree flourish. I the LORD have spoken; I will accomplish it.

L The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

PSALM 92:1-4, 12-15 (read responsively)

¹It is a good thing to give thanks to the LORD, to sing praise to your name, O Most High;

²to herald your love in the morning
and your faithfulness at night;

³on the psaltery, and on the lyre,
and to the melody of the harp.

⁴For you have made me glad by your acts, O LORD;
and I shout for joy because of the works of your hands.

¹²The righteous shall flourish like a palm tree,
and shall spread abroad like a cedar of Lebanon.

¹³Those who are planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God;

¹⁴they shall still bear fruit in old age;
they shall be green and succulent;

¹⁵that they may show how upright the LORD is,
my rock, in whom there is no injustice.

THE SECOND READING

2 Corinthians 5:6-10, 14-17

Paul encourages believers to live by faith and not by sight. We do not consider Jesus from a human perspective but through the eyes of faith, believing he died for all and was raised. All who are in Christ are now in God's new creation.

So we are always confident; even though we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord—⁷for we walk by the faith, not by sight. ⁸Yes, we do have confidence, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. ⁹So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. ¹⁰For all of us must appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense for what has been done in the body, whether good or evil.

¹⁴For the love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one had died for all; therefore all have died. ¹⁵And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them. ¹⁶From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. ¹⁷So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!

L The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

“Lord, Let My Heart Be Good Soil”

ELW 512

Lord, let my heart be good soil, o-pen to the seed of your word.

Lord, let my heart be good soil, where love can grow and peace is un-der-stood.

When my heart is hard, break the stone a - way. When my heart is cold, warm it with the day. When my heart is lost, lead me on your way.

Lord, let my heart, Lord, let my heart, Lord, let my heart be good soil.

☐ The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark.

☑ Glory to you, O Lord.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Mark 4:26-34

Jesus frequently uses parables to teach ordinary people as they are able to hear and understand. Images of sowing and growing show the vitality of God's kingdom.

Jesus said, “The kingdom of God is as if someone would scatter seed on the ground,²⁷ and would sleep and rise night and day, and the seed would sprout and grow, he does not know how.²⁸ The earth produces of itself, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head.²⁹ But when the grain is ripe, at once he goes in with his sickle, because the harvest has come.”³⁰ Jesus also said, “With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable will we use for it?³¹ It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth;³² yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes the greatest of all shrubs, and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade.”³³ With many such parables Jesus spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it;³⁴ he did not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything in private to his disciples.

☐ The Gospel of the Lord.

☑ Praise to you, O Christ.

HOLY COMMUNION All who are baptized and trust in Christ's presence in Holy Communion are invited to commune at the Lord's Table. Children not yet communing will receive a blessing. Instructions will be provided during worship. It is the understanding of the universal Church that those who wish to commune with bread only (especially for health reasons) have communed fully.

CHILDREN IN WORSHIP We believe that all are welcome in worship and encourage families to worship together. Quiet activity bags, children's bibles, and bulletins are available, as well as a Quiet Room, just off the west side of the main sanctuary, that includes a TV and a variety of toys, games, and books for young children.

ATTENDANCE CARDS All those attending worship are encouraged to fill out the card included in your bulletin and place in the offering plate.

LARGE PRINT BULLETINS AND LISTENING DEVICES Please speak to an usher if you would like a large print bulletin or an assisted listening device.

E-NEWS & SOCIAL MEDIA If you would like to receive our weekly e-news and monthly e-newsletter, add your e-mail address to the card in your bulletin or text your e-mail address to 22828.

NEW MEMBER CLASS If you are interested in joining our congregation, the next class will be held September 16 & 23 from 12—2 PM. Plan to attend both sessions. Lunch will be served and childcare is provided. Please indicate your attendance plans on your attendance card or call the church office and let us know if you will need childcare when you register.

MIDDLE SCHOOL/HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH we'll meet each week on Wednesday evenings from 6:30—9:00 PM and just hang out in the Youth Room. We hope to see you there!

IT'S NOT TO LATE TO INVEST IN KOUNTZE MEMORIAL YOUTH Twelve high school members and accompanying Adults from Kountze, plus about 30,000 others from ELCA congregations from around the nation, will get together for acts of service and spiritual development, for encouraging conversations and uplifting worship. If you'd like to help, please write "Youth Trip" in the memo area of your check. Thanks.

SPECIAL VESPERS FOR ALZHEIMER AWARENESS AND ALL CARETAKERS Wednesday, June 21, 7:00 PM, This year the Sanctuary will be open for individual meditation and prayer at 6:30 PM with Vespers beginning at 7:00 PM. Alzheimer's is the 6th leading cause of death in the United States. There are 16.1 million caregivers supporting those living with the disease. In Nebraska alone, there are 34,000 individuals living with dementia and nearly 37,000 individuals living with brain injuries. In 2 Timothy 4:17 we read, "But the Lord stood with me and gave me strength". Coming together in prayer is our opportunity to show our love and concern for those living with Alzheimer's and their Caregivers.

MEN'S LUNCHEON The Men's Luncheon meets the 3rd Thursday of each month, at 11:30 AM. The cost is $10. We enjoy conversation and a meal and hear presentations on a variety of topics. Presenters may be from the community or within the congregation. Topics may be directly theological, always inviting us to consider how faith connects with the wider community and all of creation. Join us on Thursday, June 21, and hear from Katie Larson, about the community work she has been doing.

PICNIC POTLUCK & MOVIE NIGHT On Friday, June 22, at 6:00 PM, all members of Kountze are invited to a picnic potluck and movie. The main dish and beverages will be provided. So we are always confident; even though we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord—we walk by faith, not by sight. 2 Corinthians 5:6-7 (NRSV)

A Prayer for the Week:

Gracious God, help us to see with eyes of faith that your kingdom is present in our lives and world bringing mercy and steadfast love through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Mealtime Prayer:

God has planted, God has fed. Thanks be to God for daily bread. Amen.

A Blessing to Give:

May the God of steadfast love give you a thankful heart morning and night and all the day long. (Psalm 92:1-2)

Discuss in your home or small group:

- Talk about something you have learned this past year. How did you learn it?
- Having confidence is about support as well as having skills and information. Who or what gives you a sense of confidence?
- The Apostle Paul writes, “...we walk by faith, not by sight” (2 Corinthians 5:6). How does that give you confidence in your daily life of faith?

Read: Mark 4:26-34.

Jesus talks about the kingdom of God in parables. It is acknowledged that the ability to hear and understand these parables varied according to the listener. He explained them privately to his disciples. The key to understanding parables is doing the will of God. This means following Jesus and being part of his community, his family (Mark 3:34-35). The two parables in this text describe growth through the image of plant life. Growth happens without our full comprehension of how the plants develop. In the kingdom of God growth happens as God’s will is done through Jesus. It may not be easily understood, but the fruit of the work of the kingdom does show forth in the world. Reflect on how you experience the kingdom of God as a follower of Jesus in a community of faith.

Pray: God of life and growth, we thank you that your kingdom has come to dwell among us and promises to continue with us and to bear fruit. Bless us with faith that trusts that your work is being done through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Father’s Day is a time to honor the men in our lives who have cared for us and supported us over the years. Connect with a dad, grandfather, uncle, or other mentor and go outdoors to enjoy God’s creation together. Enjoy the time together by walking side by side. Talk about some of your life experiences and how you have grown over the years.

Walking in creation has been shown to be a healthy experience, impacting our body chemistry and immune system. It also impacts our life of faith. Psalm 92 compares the life of faith with the growth of a palm and cedar tree. Make time to go for a walk in creation regularly. Before you walk each time, take time to pray this prayer:

Dear God, you who give us creation to see life and growth, guide our lives of faith to reflect your goodness and mercy all the days of our lives. Amen.

NEXT WEEK’S READINGS: Job 38:1-11; Psalm 107:1-3, 23-32
2 Corinthians 6:1-13; Mark 4:35-41
