Pastor Shari Duminy, Associate Candidate -- Procedures

We are pleased to announce that we have a candidate for the Associate Pastor position at Kountze Memorial. The Call Committee unanimously endorsed and the Congregation Council unanimously voted to recommend to the congregation to call The Reverend Shari Lounsbery Duminy to serve as Associate Pastor.

Pastor Duminy's Ministry Statement is as follows:
"Ground in love for all, I'm led by God's forgiveness, justice, and peace as I join serving together with others through Christ's Church. Journeying boldly forward, using the gifts we are each uniquely given, we answer God's call, trusting the Spirit's faithful guidance in every discerning time and place."

Pastor Duminy was born and raised in Centerville, South Dakota. She attended South Dakota State University and Wartburg Seminary. She has served as Program Director at Shetek Lutheran Bible Camp (Slayton, MN); Children's Life Coordinator at Community Family Life Services (Washington, DC); Pastor of United Lutheran Church (Hampton, NE); Preschool Chaplain and Assistant Teacher at the Littale Angels PreSchool at St. Michael Lutheran (Omaha); Chaplain at Papillion Manor (Papillion, NE) and is currently the Chaplain at Lakeside Senior Community in Omaha.

Pastor Duminy is married to Pastor Al Duminy (Sinai Lutheran Church, Fremont). She has two adult children, both of whom are in college. The Duminys live in Omaha.

Pastor Duminy will be preaching at Kountze on the weekend of October 3rd and 4th.

We will not be able to hold an in-person congregational meeting to vote on this Call. Instead (and we are awaiting approval from the Nebraska Synod) our hope is that members will request a ballot (request by mail, phone call or email) and can prayerfully consider whether or not to call Pastor Duminy. Ballots must be returned (in person or by mail) by a date that is yet to be determined.

This is an exciting event in the midst of this pandemic. Let us commit ourselves to prayer.

Pastor Olaf Roynesdal

Wearing a mask during worship is still required as is physical distancing. You must also pre-register with the church office (by phone or email) by Noon on the Thursday before the service you wish to attend.

WORSHIP with us...

Worship Times

If you plan to attend Worship in person on Saturday at 5:00 PM or Sunday at 9:00 AM, please call or e-mail the church office no later than noon on the Thursday before the date you want to attend.

The plans set forth are subject to immediate change. You may still join us for Worship on Cox channel 13 or live streamed at <https://www.kmlchurch.org/live-streaming/>

Saturday: Enter through the handicapped entrance on the northeast corner of the church building.

Sunday: Enter the church through the Kountze Commons Link Doors on the west side of our facility.

Please Note: In order to maintain physical distancing, no one will be admitted without a confirmed reservation.

Worship with us on TV or via Internet Livestream

Our 9:00 AM worship service is broadcast live on television every Sunday on Cox Channel 13. You can now also livestream the service right from your computer on our church website. Go to www.kmlchurch.org and click on the Livestreaming link on the Worship Tab. We encourage you to worship with us via television or Internet as you are able.

If You are Hospitalized...

Altar Flowers and Eternal Candle

Altar Flowers are provided by Janousek Florist and cost $20 a bouquet. The Eternal Candle is $7.50.

You can help us beautify the altar at Kountze by donating altar flowers or the eternal candle. Donating altar flowers is a simple and meaningful way to honor a loved one who has passed away, celebrate a special anniversary or milestone, or can be given in thanksgiving for friends or family. Their names will appear in the church bulletin on the weekend you select.

The Altar Flower and Eternal Candle sign-up is located in the Narthex, just before you enter the Sanctuary.

Church Broadcasts

You can sponsor a broadcast in memory of loved ones, in honor of someone's birthday or anniversary, etc. The cost of sponsoring one broadcast is $200 for 2020.

CHILDREN, YOUTH & FAMILY...

Sunday School lessons are videotaped and posted on the KMLC Parents Facebook page as well as the Kountze Memorial Facebook Page. In addition, there will be pintables and activity suggestions that complement the lesson. If you would prefer to receive the lessons by email, please contact Kristin Boe at kristin@kmlchurch.org.

First Communion

Due to social distancing restrictions, the First Communion class for the fall of 2020 will be cancelled. The curriculum for the class emphasizes the importance of gathering as a community and includes sharing a meal together. Because of this, we feel that we could not offer the class in a remote format without losing the importance of the lesson. In addition, it is tradition to commemorate with the First Communion recipients as a congregation, another vital aspect in the faith formation of our youngest members. The next First Communion class will be held in the Spring.

Bible Sunday

Saturday, October 17 - Pick up Bibles - 9:00—11:00 AM
Sunday, October 25 - Blessing of Bibles
For Ages 2, 4, and 1st, 3rd, and 5th grades

Due to physical distancing restrictions, Bible Sunday will not take place in its traditional format. However, we honor the importance of this day and providing children with the Holy Scripture.

We are asking that you pick up your Bibles on October 17, between 9:00 and 11:00 AM, in the west parking lot of Kountze. On October 25, there will be a Blessing of the Bibles during the televised church service. Your children are encouraged to watch this service and have their Bibles with them at that time. Children ages 2 and 4 years of age, and those in 1st, 3rd, and 5th grades receive Bibles. For accuracy, we ask that you have your child registered for Sunday School. If you have not done so yet, registration can be found online at

<https://www.jotform.com/Kristinboe/Registration>

Youth Forum

IN-PERSON: The youth group will meet in-person on the green space on the 1st & 3rd Sundays of the month held in the green space next to the church and the link. The meeting on the 1st Sunday of the month will be current event Sunday. Please bring an article or current event to share. (Must be non-COVID related). The link doors will be unlocked during our meeting time, and I will also have key to the exterior gate. We will maintain good physical distancing during our in-person meetings. So long as it's not down-pouring rain, we will meet outside in the green space.

ZOOM: The youth group will meet via Zoom on the 2nd & 4th Sundays of the month. Mike Jensen will send out the link to the meeting. The Zoom meetings are approximately 30 minutes in length.

Kountze Pantry continued from page 3

- Volunteer help is needed. There are folks, who have worked at the pantry for years, that just cannot volunteer right now. You don't have to come every week, although many do. Pantry workers come from Kountze, St. Michael, Florence Kiwanis, the Mormon Trail Center, and other places. If you are interested, please let the church office know.

CURRENTLY THE PANTRY MOVES 8,000 POUNDS OF FOOD EVERY MONDAY.

Help is needed.

Book Group

October 11 at 10:15 AM

The October selection for the KMLC Book Group is "The Last Days of Night" by Graham Moore. This is a historical novel set in 1888 Gilded Age New York which takes us back to the miracle of the electric light in its infancy. Moore has brought us a page turning legal thriller based on active events bringing characters, Edison, Westinghouse, Tesla, and Cravath to life. It is about genius, the cost of ambition, and the battle to electrify America.

Join us on October 11 after the 9:00 AM church service (weather permitting), as we meet in the west parking lot near the Commons entrance to discuss this ripping tale.

Kountze History from the ### Spanish Flu Epidemic and World War I, Continued

Letters from Kountze members serving in the military during World War I.

- August 18, 1918, France. LT. FRANK M. McKEE

I have not yet arrived in Berlin, but no doubt it won't be very much longer until the boys have the road clear. It will soon be time for me to put on my six-month foreign service chevron. The Kaiser has played dirty and we are going to drive him and the rest of his dirty players to the ground. The more we see of the war, the gladder we are over here and helping to fight a good clean winning fight. There is nothing that can equal the spirit of our men. No matter if they are wounded or gassed, they don't know when to stop and just can't be whipped. We are all proud of the way our friends at home are standing behind us and doing all they possibly can to help us out. You certainly must be proud of your service flag and all it represents, and I pray that the gold stars will be few when this war is over.

- August 28, 1918, Army Hospital Unit in France. SGT. 1st CLASS WILLIAM A. JORGENSEN

After having traveled over 4,000 miles and being on the ocean for over three weeks one realizes the vastness of this universe. The hospital we are part of is located in the east central France about 75 miles from the Swiss border in a valley formed by several ranges of mountains. There are so many bicycles here, everybody seems to have one, like we have Fords in the States. Here the little village with its red and brown slate roofs appears through the trees with the sky pierced by a church spire. In this case the church was built in 1712, and to think our church was built in 1906. Everything here is new and interesting, but believe me we are a most anxious bunch wanting to get home.

- October 24, 1918, France. WALTER BRUNING

I am up near the line now and have seen quite a bit of action already; the other evening a Boche aviator was over the town and dropped several bombs; they did considerable damage. I think it is a tie between the submarine and the aeroplane in being the lowest way to carry on a war that was ever heard of or could be imagined. I have seen a great deal of France and French people already and like them very much, but their language is very hard to learn. They sure have seen some tough times during the last four years. It seems queer to see groups of children going to school with their big wooden shoes on; it sounds like a troop of cavalry coming down the street. Leather is so high here only the rich can buy leather shoes.

- November 19, 1918, Fort Riley, Kansas. ARMY REG. NURSE, MISS BERTHA ELSASSER

My dear, Dr. Baltzly and Rev. Shrader, Your letter along with the Kountze Newsletter came this morning. I was sure glad to get them. I certainly never expected to be a patient here, but one never knows what is in store for them. I nursed in a pneumonia ward from the day I arrived, and stuck it out sixteen days, then had to give up. I worked that last day up to 7 P.M. with a temperature of 103 degrees and the next thing I knew I was a patient. I never was so surprised in my life when one day I looked up and saw Mother and sister Sophia at my bed. It was only then I realized how sick I was. One morning the Doctor came and said he was going to give me some "chicken serum" and it would cure me. He punctured my arm five times and I guess the serum for "chickens" was the right thing all right, for it did the work. I note in the Newsletter, that the boys received a picture of the interior of the church, but failed to see where the Nurses came in at. As usual, the girls are left out!! Hm! (Sounds like Bertha may be a Kountze Suffragette)

- December 14, 1918, Base Hospital in France. CORP. CHRIS H. DAMM

I apologize for not writing sooner as I have not had much time before I went to the front and was pretty badly wounded and sent to the hospital, and have been there ever since. I certainly have had the best of care. I feel pretty good now and anxious to get home. I am sorry to say I have not been to church very often as all churches here are Catholic, but we have the Red Cross in town and they have services every Sunday.

- December 14, 1918, Base Hospital No. 22, Bordeaux, France. - P. J. BALTZER

Just a note to let you know I came through the big game fine, except for a little "gas bum," which put me in the Base Hospital. Expect to leave Bordeaux in a day or two.

• January 15, 1919, Wirges, Germany. PFC. CHESTER A. HANSEN

I am with the First Division and joined them on the American drive at Cantigue. From here we went to Seissons and were the ones that freed that town. From there we went to St. Mahael and was in that drive from Verdun; from there to Argonne Wood and cleared them of the Boche for all times. We were the first division to go into Germany and the first to cross the Rhine and very glad to be able to say this, but am starting to think of civilian life very much now. I went to a German Lutheran Church Sunday, and it was the same as our good American church, only I could not understand the sermon, as it was in German.

This Old House

The inspector trained his infrared lens onto a misshapen bow in the ceiling, an invisible beam of light searching the layers of lath to test what the eye could not see. This house had been built generations ago, and I had noticed the slightest welt in a corner of plaster in a spare bedroom and had chalked it up to idiosyncrasy. Over time, the welt in the ceiling became a wave that widened and bulged despite the new roof. It had been building beyond perception for years. An old house is its own kind of devotional, a dowager aunt with a story to be coaxed out of her, a mystery, a series of interlocking puzzles awaiting solution. Why is this soffit tucked into the southeast corner of an eave? What is behind this discolored patch of brick? With an old house, the work is never done, and you don't expect it to be.

America is an old house. We can never declare the work over. Wind, flood, drought, and human upheavals batter a structure that is already fighting whatever flaws were left unattended in the original foundation. When you live in an old house, you may not want to go into the basement after a storm to see what the rains have wrought. Choose not to look, however, at your own peril. The owner of an old house knows that whatever you are ignoring will never go away. Whatever is lurking will fester whether you choose to look or not. Ignorance is no protection from the consequences of inaction. Whatever you are wishing away will gnaw at you until you gather the courage to face what you would rather not see. ...

Many people may rightly say, "I had nothing to do with how this all started. I have nothing to do with the sins of the past. My ancestors never attacked indigenous people, never owned slaves." And, yes. Not one of us was here when this house was built. Our immediate ancestors may have had nothing to do with it, but here we are, the current occupants of a property with stress cracks and bowed walls and fissures built into the foundation. We are heirs to whoever is right or wrong with it. We did not erect the uneven pillars or joists, but they are ours to deal with now.

A graphic for a Thanksgiving Dinner announcement. It features a central text box with a white background and a thin black border, set against a background of a blurred landscape with a blue sky and green fields. In the foreground, there is a still life arrangement of autumn produce, including a large orange pumpkin, a cornucopia of vegetables like corn, squash, and gourds, and some dried corn cobs.
